

K-LOVE, 91.9 FM, encourages my life every day with positive and encouraging music, and it is a very family friendly station. I never have to worry about what young ears might be listening. If K-LOVE were replaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming, my community would indeed lose one of the morally sound, God-fearing stations we have left and many listeners would be lost. K-LOVE is often the sole thing that keeps people encouraged, and I would hate to see that aspect of life be thwarted by some other cause. In my mind, K-LOVE is perhaps the most encouraging and morally sound broadcast on today's radiowaves. K-LOVE tremendously serves communities all across America, and the hundreds of thousands of testimonies that can be heard are evidence of K-LOVE's necessity in today's radio and music.
